

List of Boxes

13.1 SSE agroecological consumer-producer movements

13.2 Movements for employment and livelihoods

14.1 Gōngyè Hézuòshè (Gung-Ho)

14.2 The first mutual in South Africa

14.3 Uganda shoe-shiners

14.4 Amul

16.1 Chartreuse de Neuville, a win-win partnership in France

16.2 The German partnership for 2015 migrants inclusion

16.3 La Main à la Pâte, a French foundation that is becoming international

18.1 SHG-Bank Linkage Programme – A Win-Win model

18.2 SEWA: A trade Union of Women in Informal Sector

18.3 Kudumbashree: Asia's Largest Women's Collective

19.1 Related Concepts: Community Development (CD) and Community Organisation (CO)

19.2 Chinmaya Organization for Rural Development (CORD)

19.3 Partnership of CBOs

19.4 JEEVIKA – Jeeta Vimukti Karnataka (Bonded Labour Liberation Karnataka), India

23.1 Up & Go (USA): SSE and migrants' self-organization in the gig economy

23.2 Jobel (Italy): SSE transforming refugees' needs and talents into local development opportunities

23.3 Action Emploi Réfugiés (France): SSE for refugees' labour market integration

24.1 Links between the SDG and SSE at the national level: Malaysian VNR

24.2 Links between the SDG and the SSE at the sub-national level

24.3 The Association for Sarva Seva farms (ASSEFA)

24.4 Community-owned Pawn Shops in Malaysia

26.1 Sustainable Investment in agriculture through SSE entities

26.2 Alternative production and consumption SSE models

40.1 The case of France

45.1. Incorporating SSE values in education policy reform in the UK

45.2 SSE achieving universal coverage of health care in Rwanda

45.3 Kudumbashree initiative: Creating synergies between SSE and Social Policy

47.1 Governmental supporting organization in Barcelona

47.2 Supporting organizations specialized in SSE training

49.1 Mainstreaming SSE in development plans and programmes in multiple contexts and levels of governance

49.2 Plan to boost SSE in Barcelona