Executory Contracts in Insolvency Law
A Global Guide

Edited by Jason Chuah, Professor of Commercial and Maritime Law, The City Law School, City, University of London, UK and Guest Professor of Maritime Law, University of Gothenburg, Sweden and Eugenio Vaccari, School of Law and Social Sciences, Royal Holloway University of London, UK

Executory Contracts in Insolvency Law offers a unique, comprehensive, and up-to-date transnational study of the topic, including an analysis of certain countries which have never previously been undertaken in English. Written by experts in the field, with extensive experience of both research and professional experience, this is a groundbreaking investigation into the philosophies and rationales behind the different policy choices adopted and implemented by a range of over 30 jurisdictions across the globe.

‘This is a significant contribution to the Elgar Comparative Guides series. There are 34 national reports contained in this major tome plus a valuable overview produced by the editors. The editors are leading academics with considerable legal and scholarly experience of how insolvency regimes operate across the globe. They are to be congratulated for putting together such a weighty and impressive collection of insights into different regulatory strategies for a common problem in insolvency practice. It is to be recommended in the warmest of terms.’
