

The Global Integration of Europe and East Asia

Studies of International Trade and Investment

New Horizons in International Business series

Edited by the late Sang-Gon Lee, formerly Professor of Economics, Inha University, South Korea and Pierre-Bruno Ruffini, Professor of Economics, University of Le Havre, France

The financial turmoil of the late 1990s resulted partly from an excessive dependency between countries and regions. This important and timely new book examines the growing interdependency between Europe and East Asia and provides suggestions to prevent financial crises in the future.
