THE ECONOMIC ANALYSIS OF RENT SEEKING

The International Library of Critical Writings in Economics series

Edited by the late Robert D. Tollison, formerly Professor of Economics, Clemson University, US and Roger D. Congleton, BB&T Professor of Economics, West Virginia University, US

This collection brings together the classic papers on the economics of rent seeking. These papers date from Gordon Tullock’s original 1967 paper which first put forth the idea that the pursuit of transfers was socially costly. Other classic papers by Anne Krueger and Richard Posner are included, as well as a series of more recent papers which trace the evolution of the literature on this important innovation in economic theory.

‘All in all, this book is a must for anyone with interests in this area.’
– Vani Borooah, The Economic Journal
