

Multilevel Environmental Governance

Managing Water and Climate Change in Europe and North America

Edited by Inger Weibust, Assistant Professor, Norman Paterson School of International Affairs, Carleton University and James Meadowcroft, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada

The literature on Multi-level governance (MLG), an approach that explicitly looks at the system of the many interacting authority structures at work in the global political economy, has grown significantly over the last decade. The authors in this volume examine how multilevel governance (MLG) systems address climate change and water policy.
