Comparative Competition Law and Economics

Roger J. Van den Bergh, Professor of Law and Economics, Rotterdam Institute of Law and Economics, Erasmus University Rotterdam, the Netherlands

Offering a concise and critical comparison of EU competition law and US antitrust law from an economic perspective, this is the ideal textbook for international and interdisciplinary courses combining law and economic approaches.

‘The role of economic analysis in defining the sense of antitrust rules. The convergence between the US and the EU and their enduring differences. The competition laws recently adopted in other continents. Wherever you are in the world, you will find in this book everything you wanted to know about antitrust.’

– Giuliano Amato, Judge of the Italian Constitutional Court, Former Prime Minister

‘Comparative Competition Law and Economics is a tour de force. It offers a fully integrated analysis of US and EU competition law and economics. The legal and economic analyses are up-to-date, comprehensive, provocative and yet readable. It deserves a spot on your bookshelf.’

– Daniel Rubinfeld, New York University, School of Law and University of California, Berkeley, US

‘This is an excellent and truly interdisciplinary textbook on competition law and economics, in which students learn both the most important economic insights and the legal rules in a clear and comprehensible way. Particularly valuable is the comparative perspective in regard to EU competition law, US antitrust law, and other new competition laws in the world.’

– Wolfgang Kerber, Marburg University, Germany
