Handbook of Research on Strategic Human Capital Resources

Research Handbooks in Business and Management series

Edited by Anthony J. Nyberg, Distinguished Moore Fellow, Darla Moore School of Business, University of South Carolina and Thomas P. Moliterno, Earl W. Stafford Professor of Entrepreneurial Studies, Isenberg School of Management, University of Massachusetts Amherst, US

Strategic human capital resources are a relatively new construct with a scholarly literature that is still evolving. Work in this area requires the integration of multiple theoretical perspectives and empirical approaches, but that integration rarely occurs. Within these pages, the editors have combined the voices of leading scholars from a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds to provide a comprehensive introduction to the current state of the field.
