The Impact of Environmental Law
Stories of the World We Want

The IUCN Academy of Environmental Law series

Edited by Rose-Liza Eisma-Osorio, University of Cebu, Philippines, Elizabeth A. Kirk, University of Lincoln, UK and Jessica Steinberg Albin, Elisabeth Haub School of Law, Pace University, US

This cutting-edge book invites readers to rethink environmental law and its critical role in ensuring a sustainable future for all. Illustrating narratives of successful developments in environmental law, contributors draw out key lessons and practices for effective reform and highlight opportunities by which we can respond to environmental challenges facing the planet.

‘This volume presents an illuminating collection of case studies in environmental law and governance that could provide valuable inspiration to jurisdictions across the world.’
– Daria Shapovalova, Edinburgh Law Review

‘This uplifting compilation of environmental law success stories from all over the world offers hope, guidance, and inspiration – a welcome antidote to the paralyzing despair that pervades so many conversations about our increasingly damaged planet.’
– Carmen G. Gonzalez, Seattle University School of Law, US
