Legal Challenges of Big Data

Edited by Joe Cannataci, UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Privacy, Head of the Department of Information Policy and Governance, Faculty of Media and Knowledge Sciences, University of Malta and Chair of European Information Policy and Technology Law, University of Groningen, the Netherlands, Valeria Falce, Jean Monnet Professor in EU Innovation Policy and Full Professor of Economic Law, European University of Rome, Italy and Oreste Pollicino, Full Professor of Constitutional Law, Bocconi University, Italy, member of the Sounding Board on Disinformation, expert for the Global Partnership on Artificial Intelligence (GPAI), and member of the board of the European Union Fundamental Rights Agency (FRA)

This groundbreaking book explores the new legal and economic challenges triggered by big data, and analyses the interactions among and between intellectual property, competition law, free speech, privacy and other fundamental rights vis-à-vis big data analysis and algorithms.