

The European Social Model and an Economy of Well-being

Repairing the Social Fabric of European Societies

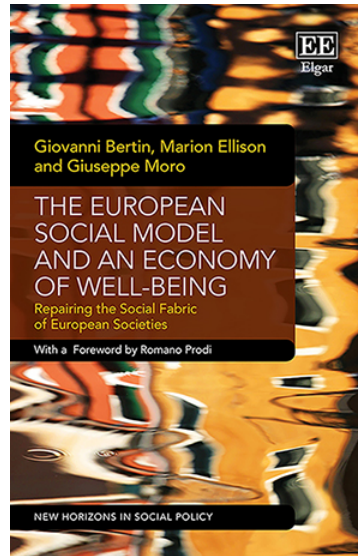

New Horizons in Social Policy series

Giovanni Bertin, Professor of Comparative Welfare States, Department of Economics, Ca'Foscari University of Venice, Italy, Marion Ellison, Professor of European Social Policy and Sociology, Department of Psychology, Sociology and Education, Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh, UK and Giuseppe Moro, Professor of Sociology and Social Policy, Department of Political Science, University of Bari Aldo Moro, Italy

This timely book critically examines the European Social Model as a contested concept and concrete set of European welfare and governance arrangements. It offers a theoretical and empirical analysis of new economic models and existing European investment strategies to address key issues within post-Covid-19 Europe.

'The authors provide the reader with the analytical tools needed to understand what has been defined as the "European social model" and to grasp some of the most pressing challenges it is undergoing, including the Covid-19 stress test.'
