Applied Microeconomic Theory

Selected Essays of B. Curtis Eaton

Economists of the Twentieth Century series

B. Curtis Eaton, Professor of Economics, University of Calgary, Canada

Applied Microeconomic Theory presents a seminal collection of the author's influential papers in a number of areas of applied microeconomic theory. This invaluable volume contains a selection of both published and unpublished papers written over a period of thirty years and reveals Curtis Eaton's profound economic insight and ability.

‘This is an excellent collection of papers written by a leader of thought in industrial organisation for the last twenty years.’
– Kevin Lawler, Economic Issues
