Regional Trading Blocs in the Global Economy

The EU and ASEAN

May T. Yeung, University of Saskatchewan, Canada; Nicholas Perdikis, Director, School of Management and Business, University of Wales, Aberystwyth, UK and William A. Kerr, Van Vliet Professor, University of Saskatchewan, Canada

The Asia–Pacfic Rim is still potentially one of the most dynamic areas of the global economy, and the European Union (EU) is the world’s most prosperous market. The development of relations between the EU and Association of South East Asian Nations (ASEAN) is vitally important for the future economic evolution of both regions. This book traces the relationship between the EU and ASEAN, considering the current and future position of trade relations.
