

Water Management in Arid and Semi-Arid Regions Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Edited by Phoebe Koundouri, Associate Professor in Economics, DIEES, Athens University of Economics and Business, Greece, Katia Karousakis, Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), Paris, France, Dionysis Assimacopoulos, National Technical University of Athens, Greece, Paul Jeffrey, School of Water Sciences, Cranfield University, UK and Manfred A. Lange, Energy, Environment and Water Research Center, Cyprus Institute

The aim of this book is to formulate appropriate strategies and guidelines for water management necessary for the formulation and implementation of integrated sustainable management of water resources. Lessons are learned from various case studies, which examine competing water use patterns, compare governance structures and how these have evolved in response to scarcity, and structural and non-structural instruments to address water deficiency.
