

Migration and Mobility in Europe Trends, Patterns and Control

Edited by Heinz Fassmann, Professor of Applied Geography, Regional Research and Spatial Planning, University of Vienna, Austria, Max Haller, Professor of Sociology, University of Graz, Austria and David Lane, Fellow, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, UK

The enlargement of the European Union has had an enormous impact on migration within Europe. This book addresses the form of these effects, outlining the social, political and economic problems created by the free movement of people within the European Union.

'The papers presented in this volume form a homogeneous body of knowledge with many facets. The topics researched present a wide variety. . . This volume offers solid research on a variety of issues in the study of migration.'
